Market Manager Catches Trio of Theft Suspects

The manager of a downtown Torrance market had a busy Saturday evening, when he caught three shoplifting suspects. Early in the afternoon, Elden Griffiths, manager of the Fox Market, 1321 Post Ave., turned Dorothy Diane Pinkerton, 25, of Gardena, over to police, after he allegedly observed her stealing a carton of cigarettes and children's clothing. Later that evening, he held two longshoremen for police after they allegedly attempted to steal three cartons of cigarettes each. Booked on petty theft charges by police were Blair Dalton, 38, of San Pedro, and Bertram Paul Hoffman, 40, of Wilmington.
